CHRISTIAN COUNTY MEN SENTENCED ON CRACK COCAINE CHARGES

*– Defendants sentenced to 15 and 20 years
– Owensboro Police Department keeps $30,000 of crack off streets*

David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, announced today that ANTONIO DESHAWN CAYCE, age 31, of 2218 Long Street, Hopkinsville, Kentucky, in Christian County and LARRY DAVIE, age 24, of 1820 Harbor Drive, Oak Grove, Kentucky, in Christian County were sentenced in United States District Court, Paducah, Kentucky, for conspiracy and possessing with intent to distribute crack cocaine.

United States District Court Judge Thomas B. Russell sentenced Cayce to 20 years, plus 10 years supervised release following incarceration.

United States District Court Judge Thomas B. Russell sentenced Davie to 15 years, plus 5 years supervised release following incarceration.

There is no parole in the federal judicial system.

Cayce and Davie pled guilty to conspiracy and also to possessing with intent to distribute crack cocaine. Cayce and Davie along with co-defendants, Rodriguez Horgain and Edwin Brim admitted that they conspired with each other and others to (1) knowingly and intentionally possess with the intent to distribute more than 50 grams of cocaine base, and (2) in fact possessed more than 50 grams of cocaine base with the intent to distribute it. Specifically, through a number of phone calls made on June 8, 2006, and June 9, 2006, Cayce agreed that he would send three of his associates to deliver the cocaine base on the evening of June 9, 2006. The three associates (Horgain, Davie, and Brim) were arrested as they attempted to make the delivery on the evening of June 9, 2006. Officers seized a quantity of cocaine base. DEA labs confirmed that the substance seized was in fact cocaine base (also known as crack cocaine) and had a net weight of 318.6 grams, with a street value of over $30,000.

Assistant United States Attorney Madison T. Sewell prosecuted the case and was investigated by the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Owensboro Police Department.

Co-Defendants Horgain and Brim are scheduled for sentencing before Judge Russell, United States District Court, Paducah, Kentucky on February 13, 2007 at 11:00 a.m.
